Multi-Ethnic Experience Committee
September 30, 2015
4:00 PM

Committee Members Present: Tom Genova, Solomon Gashaw, Farah Gilanshah, Jena Lipham, Nick TwoBears, T.J. Ross, Simon Franco, Michael Ceballos, Hilda Ladner, Jessica Porwoll, Matthew Linder

Committee Members Not in Attendance: Jenna Ray, Jeremy O'Hara

The meeting was called to order:

- Tom asked the group if the chair would vote if a committee vote ever came to a tie. All agreed that during a tie the chair should vote. TJ made a motion to accept, Simon seconded.

The group discussed the overall committee structure:

- It was suggested that the committee add a second P & A staff person, bringing the total committee size to 12.
- The group discussed adding low income, first generation, GLBT* students, and/or students with disabilities to the committee's purview, but decided against the change noting that the committee has much work to do just within the scope of multi-ethnic students. The group also noted that creation of other committees might help to manage other groups' concerns more effectively. The mission will not be expanded at this time.
- The MEC doesn't have a budget for activities, is usually supported by Multi-Ethnic Student Program.

The committee discussed concerns/topics to focus on for the year including:

- Bill & Idea Stewart Diversity Award
- Faculty hires (Are we recruiting well? Are we competitive? What could be done to strengthen this area?)
- Diversitea
- Intercultural competency events for faculty/staff
- Email to students from MEC explaining who we are and what we do
- Invitations to campus guests for future meetings
- Email survey/poll for students (plans are coming together for a larger campus climate survey through Melissa Bert's office in spring of fall 2016)
- Updating diversity poster
