UMM Student Affairs Committee
Minutes – March 11, 2013
Prairie Lounge

Present: Peter Bremer (Chair), Sandy Olson-Loy, Barry McQuarrie, Cheryl Stewart, Holly Gruntner, Cory Schroeder, Becca Gercken, Hazen Fairbanks

Absent: David Swenson, Tamir Elnabarawy, Sheila Windingstad

I. Minutes

Holly made a motion to approve the minutes of the January 28, 2013 and February 11, 2013, meetings, Hazen seconded. Motion was approved (7-0-0).

II. Baby Changing Tables

Robert Thompson will check on the restrooms included in Tier 1 of the proposal to ensure there is adequate space for the installation of baby changing tables.

III. Student Employment Cap/Stipend

The Committee discussed the Student Employment Committee. Hazen said she would like to see a member of MCSA on the Student Employment Committee, Cory Schroeder agreed to be a representative. Peter made a motion to charge the Student Employment Committee with looking into whether a change should be made to the current employment cap, Barry seconded. Motion was approved (7-0-0).

IV. MPIRG Water Bottle Proposal

Joey Daniewicz, from MPIRG Environmental Justice Task Force, informed the Committee of MPIRG's proposal to eliminate the sales of bottled water on the UMM campus. Joey showed the committee the proposed replacement bottle, a foldable water container, to possibly be sold at the Info Center. Joey was invited to readdress the Committee in the future when more information is available.

V. Enrollment & Retention

Bryan Herrmann, Director of Admissions, showed the Committee his model for projected enrollment and retention at UMM for the next few years. The projections should be helpful in making a recommendation for on-campus/off-campus housing.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:38 PM.
