1. Update on the Blue Ribbon Committee

A. Strategies for Using Blue Ribbon Committee Input

1. Look further into how UMM can create a cost effective “e-learning” program.
2. Look further into how UMM can utilize facilities year round, specifically in summer.
3. Look further into how UMM can raise more revenue.
4. Look further into how UMM might be able to reinvigorate continuing education learning.

B. No specifics are known at this time about how the strategies will be implemented. There will be more follow-up meetings for blue ribbon group still.

1. Chancellor Jacquie Johnson will be using the Blue Ribbon Committee information to plan out the feasibility of the strategies previously mentioned.

C. Some changes may take place this coming summer.

2. Approval of 02/17/2010 Minutes

Minutes were approved by the Committee.

3. Campus Wide Meeting

A. A meeting was suggested by Consultative Committee to enhance communication between all of the parts of campus governance.

1. The primary purpose of this meeting would be for Senators, Students, Administrators, Representatives, and other campus governance positions to come together to share information, ask questions, voice concerns they have, and provide feedback.

B. Jon Anderson will be the Moderator of this meeting.

C. Administrators will be there primarily to provide answers to questions anyone may have that governance representatives cannot answer.

D. This meeting will be taking place in the evening.

4. Update on Meeting with Jacqui, Paula, Pete, Michelle and Senators about furloughs.
