Office of Sustainability Hosts 100 Guests in 1 Day

Office of Sustainability interns Katie Ledermann '17, Maeve Maron '18, and Rebecca Schrupp '17 provided a green tour for 5th graders from the Morris Elementary School on October 27. About 80 students visited the Morris biomass gasification plant, compost windrow-system, and solar thermal panels. This collaboration with Morris Elementary School teachers is part of campus-community Morris Model work to increase awareness of clean-energy systems in the region. Additionally, the Office of Sustainability worked with Admissions to provide a tour for guidance counselors in Minnesota. The counselor group visited the 1.65MW wind turbines and other green assets. In total, about 100 people visited campus on a single day.

Maron '18 and Harris Host Zero Waste and Compost Summit

Office of Sustainability intern Maeve Maron '18, in collaboration with Facilities Director Lisa Harris, hosted the 2016 Zero Waste and Compost Summit on October 27. About 20 students, staff, and community members attended the event. Discussion at the event highlighted the 300,000 pounds of organics diverted from the landfill since the program began. Summit participants also discussed the future of waste disposal in Stevens County with City of Morris Manager Blaine Hill '87, Stevens County Coordinator Rebecca Young, and Stevens County Environmental Services Director Bill Kleindl. The Morris Composting Program began four years ago and has grown to include all parts of campus life. This zero-waste campus-community dialogue is part of the larger Morris Model initiative.
