Ice Cream and Lollipops exhibit in its 37th year

Summary: Now in its 37th year, the annual Ice Cream and Lollipops Children's Art Exhibit will be held May 23-25 in the UMM Humanities Fine Arts Gallery.

(May 16, 2007)-Now in its 37th year, the annual Ice Cream and Lollipops Children's Art Exhibit is just around the corner. The exhibit, sponsored by Community Service and Volunteerism at the University of Minnesota, Morris and completely funded by donations from Willie's Super Valu, Coborn's and Henry's Foods, gives local children from preschool to second grade the opportunity to witness their incredible artwork on display while enjoying an atmosphere of storytelling, music, ice cream and lollipops.

This year's exhibition will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May 23-25, in the UMM Humanities Fine Arts Gallery during which area schools will bring classes to view the art and hear stories as well as to eat ice cream and lollipops.

This year's Ice Cream and Lollipops exhibit will focus on the favorite book each class has chosen and from which each class creates a mural. The show is open for public viewing from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Friday and noon to 5 p.m. on Saturday. Ice cream and lollipops will be served at 9 a.m., 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Wednesday through Friday.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
