From: Formation of a Saddle Club
Subject:

A group came to see me about the possibility of a Saddle Club and their need of a barn where they could keep their horses. They were interested in one of the old West Central Barns as a possible place.

They were to come back to me and tell me the number of people interested and be more concrete in their proposal.

In a meeting later with Jack Imholte, he stated that the West Central people would not be moving to new barns until September or October of 1972.
