DIRECTOR'S NOTES

What you are about to see is just a glimpse of what will become eternity for these three souls; trapped in a room with nothing but each other and their thoughts. There is no torture or physical pain, only the relentless sound of their minds.

What first intrigued me about this play was the intense cyclical pattern; there would be no resolve, no way to understand, for understanding is impossible. The result? Exposure of pure, raw, emotion with no consequences.

I was then overwhelmed by the intense relationship that arises between the characters, and the dynamics of the characters themselves. It came to the actors' very early, that on the surface, anyone of us could be Estelle, Cradeau or Inez.

I'd like to thank everyone who has been a part of UMM Theatre during the past four years, making my experience so grand!

I would like to say a very special thank you to Julie for her patience and her ability to get me to "calm down." Lastly, I would like to dedicate my role in this production to my parents, Sharon and David. Without their love and support, none of this could be possible. Enjoy the show!
