Changes in the Library
Briggs Library is moving to a new Integrated Library System (ILS) at the end of the December. As of December 26, Summon Classic, the Briggs Library catalog, will be replaced by Pounce. The campus community is encouraged to try this new system prior to the December implementation. For more information, please contact Jayne Blodgett.

Upcoming ESUP Town Hall Meeting

On Friday, October 11, there will be a ESUP Student Records Town Hall. Attendees will hear about plans for training and learn about a new tool: the User Productivity Kit (UPK), which will help create different training materials and improve the Help link within PeopleSoft. There will also be time reserved for attendees to voice comments/concerns and ask questions of the team. For more information or to RSVP, please visit the ESUP website.

Save the Date: Employee Health and Benefit Fair

You are invited to attend the Employee Health and Benefit Fair on Monday, November 11, from 11 a.m.—1 p.m. in the Student Center’s Oyate Hall. Meet with vendors representing medical plans, flexible spending accounts, employee benefits, retirement savings, dental plans, employee wellness, and more. Free flu shots will be available, and light lunch will be provided. For more information, contact Angela Berlinger.

Accomplishments

The University of Minnesota’s Next Generation Environmental Leaders received the Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education (AASHE) Student Sustainability Leadership Award. This interdisciplinary collaboration, featuring students from two University of Minnesota campuses, was lauded for more than 12 months of work that culminated in a transformative panel at Governor Mark Dayton’s 2013 Environmental Congress. Natalie Hoidal ’15, Forest Lake, oversaw the strategy and logistics of the group. Other Morris participants include Tim Sheehan ’16, Edina, Rachel Haile ’14, Woodbury, Bryce Blankenfeld ’14, Goodridge, Joey Daniewicz ’14, Woodbury, Molly Donovan ’14, Minneapolis, Aaron Goemann ’14, Wells, Melinda Kawalek ’13, Inver Grove Heights, Laura Korth ’15, Morris, Perry Moore ’16, Lac du Flambeau, Wisconsin, Anna Pratt ’15, Shoreview, Adrian Schiller ’14, Chaska, Catherine Spurgeon ’13, Coon Rapids, and Jordan Wente ’15, Dodge Center, and Troy Goodnough, sustainability director.

Ann DuHamel, head of keyboard studies, will join her music group, ensemble:Périphérie, at Carnegie Weill Recital Hall on Saturday, October 26. Presented by Distinguished Concerts International New York, this will be the group’s New York City debut. This event is sponsored, in part, by the Faculty Research Enhancement Fund.

In the News

Tammy Berberi, associate professor of French and president of the Society for Disability Studies, is featured in a recent story by the Minnesota Daily. The article discusses the fact that disability is often left out of discussions regarding diversity and identity.
