August 30, 1983

MORRIS -- Michelle Rosdahl is the first University of Minnesota Saddle Club queen. She will be the club's representative to compete at the Western Saddle Club Association (WSCA) queen's competition and championship show.

The competition events will be held September 16 and 17 at Howard Johnson's in Burnsville and September 23, 24, and 25 at the Hippodrome on the State Fairgrounds.

The UMM Saddle Club, a UMM student-run organization, joined the WSCA in 1981. The WSCA serves the upper midwest area; it has become one of the largest associations of its kind in this part of the country.

Michelle Rosdahl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosdahl from Wendell, MN. She will be a sophomore at the UMM, majoring in Elementary Education. She hopes to teach kindergarten or lower primary. She is an active club member, avid rider, and show exhibitor. She is currently the UMM Saddle Club's vice-president. Other interests of hers include sewing, reading, and sports such as volleyball and golf.

The club's queen candidates were judged on scholastic achievement, horse knowledge and skills, goals, poise and personality. Karin Mechelke was the pageant coordinator. The judges were Mr. and Mrs. James Van Alstine (club advisors) and Mrs. Eugene Mechelke.
