I. Minutes

MOTION: (Dave N, Carla R) To approve the November 4 and November 11, 2005 minutes as written.

VOTE: Unanimous.

II. Student Organization Constitutions

A. Students Today Leaders Forever (STLF)

MOTION: (Judy, Dave N) To approve the STLF constitution with suggested nominal changes.

VOTE: Unanimous.

B. National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws at the University of Minnesota,
Morris (NORML)

MOTION: (Carla R, Dave N) To approve the NORML constitution with suggested nominal changes.

VOTE: Unanimous.

III. Old Business

A. Strategic Planning meeting

Nick Petersen reported on the meeting with Anne Carroll for the benefit of SSC members who were unable to attend. Petersen mentioned that Carroll said the group had contributed some new thoughts and ideas that had not been presented before at other meetings. All in all, the group felt it was a worthwhile experience.

B. Student Organizations

Dave Swenson reported that he was in the process of convening a group of student leaders in an effort to form an advisory group. The advisory group would be looking into the problem of too many student organizations at UMM and the need for effective communication between organizations and students.

IV. New Business

A. Nick Petersen mentioned that Miriam Pantan had accepted the position of Chair of Student Employment Subcommittee. This subcommittee was preparing a proposal to present to SSC early next semester.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30 A.M.
