Accomplishments

Morris has again been recognized by Washington Monthly for both its affordability and social engagement. The magazine, which released its annual college rankings last week, included Morris on its “Best-Bang-for-the-Buck” and public good-based lists.

Morris also earned a STARS Gold 2.0 Rating from the Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education (AASHE) in recognition of its sustainability achievements. STARS, the Sustainability Tracking, Assessment & Rating System, measures and encourages sustainability in all aspects of higher education.

In the News

Kayla Pridmore '12 is featured in a story by Inforum. Pridmore and Christian Schultz, who operate Woodbury Community Farm, argue on behalf of ugly vegetables in hopes of reducing food waste.
