VII. Old Business

A. For Information:

1. Debrief on Campus Conversation #3 presented by Representative Lenius
 - a) Students of Tomorrow: Readings were about different changing racial demographics show lower percentages of white. Other demographics are increasing. Talking about being better inclusive. Create more resources. Talk about mental health, how many people leave due to mental health. Talking about better engaging current resources and creating new resources. Making requirement of self care class part of the general education credits. Looking at combating mental health issues

(1) Hunt: When is the next one?

(a) Lenius: Thursday 11:30-12:30 science auditorium

B. For Action:

1. Vote on Facebook Guidelines revisions
2. Hunt: I noticed the removal process has no appeals. Would there be a potential to add that?
 - a) Amendment: Point 3 under membership be “appeals can be granted pursuant to the rules of MCSA”

(1) Goodsell: What is the appeal process?

(a) Smith: “pursuant to a rulings of MCSA”

(b) Hunt: I change my amendment as Smith stated

(c) Lenius: Is the MCSA gonna be in forum or in executive committee?

(d) Wilson: Would we vote for every appeals process?

(e) Smith: Yes, and it should not come up often

(f) Amended to “the MCSA forum” by Wilson

(i) Accepted as a friendly amendment by Hunt

(g) Rosemark: Will this be posted on the Facebook page?

(i) Wilson: Yes

(h) Pilugin: Do we want the moderators to vote or everyone?

(i) Lenius: We cannot use the same people who removed the person to appeal.

(i) Debellis: We should have it so they make the appeal to executive committee which will bring it them to forum.

(i) Smith: They should come straight to forum.

(ii) Isaac: They shouldn't go to executive committee because the ruling might be the same because it is the same people.

(iii) Wilson: Executive committee puts together the agenda so they should come to forum for action.

(a) "Appeals should be submitted to exec and it will be brought before MCSA forum"

(i) Hunt accepts friendly amendment

(iv) Smith amends to change the wording to "appeals may"

(a) Hunt accepts

(j) 1 no, 0 abstentions, motion carries. Amendment Passes

b) Approving rest of amendment as a slate
