In these minutes: Continued review of draft poster procedures

Meeting was called to order at 11:42am. Bryan Nell made a motion to approve the minutes from 4/7/2020 and seconded by Mitch Primus. All members approved.

A. Old Business - Proposed Poster Policy review

The discussion continued on the proposed poster policy draft centering around clarification of language, adding examples, and discussion of disability accomodation language to include, when to remove materials from the boards, and adding a time limit for table tents. The committee also discussed banners and how to clarify the installation procedures and location for banners.

B. New Business:

The committee discussed the SAC's role in the event of continued distance learning in the fall. Are there ways to compile things that need to change? Members noted that online learning is more stressful than in person learning. Reviewed the word bubble visual created by MCSA and reports of how students are doing emotionally and financially. Professors continue to be a first step resource for students - are there ways to support them?

Meeting was adjourned at 12:49pm.

Committee will have an unofficial meeting May 5th, 2020 to continue these discussions.
