In these minutes: New member introductions, continued review of draft poster procedures, student organization constitution approvals

Meeting was called to order at 11:42am. Members made introductions and welcomed the new committee members. Sydney Loechler made a motion to approve the minutes from 4/21/2020, 5/5/2020, and 9/8/2020 as a slate. The motion was seconded by Mitch Primus. All members approved.

David Israels – Swenson presented two new Student Organizations (NASA and oSTEM) for approval of constitutions. NASA -Native American Student Association has a similar mission as others on campus and the committee wanted to see more information on how this group would be a distinct organization. Sydney Loechler made a motion to table this approval. Carrie Jepma seconded the motion. All members approved.

oSTEM is a chapter of a National organization dedicated to LGBTQIS+ students in the STEM field. Bryan Nell made a motion to approve the constitution with Carrie Jepma seconding the motion. All members approved.

Proposed Poster Policy review

Victor Berberi and David Israels Swenson gave a review of the policy work done last year by this committee. Suggested next step is to meet again with Division Chairs, MCSA, and other groups on campus for additional feedback. The draft will be resent to the Consultative and Planning Committees, EDI, Commission on Women and Gender Equity, as well as to the broader campus population. The goal would be to present it to the Campus Assembly in the beginning of spring semester.

Discussion continued of upcoming topics for this committee to review. David Israels Swenson will provide the current Student Organization Classification policy for the committee to review, clarify, and revise as needed.

Meeting was adjourned at 12:36pm.
