After some brief questions and discussion the constitutions of all three organizations were approved by the committee.

Simon reviewed the upcoming Family weekend schedule and encouraged the committee to support the events and connect with students and families who will be on campus that weekend.

Sandy Olson-Loy shared her appreciation for all those who helped with NSO days this past summer as well as Welcome week and Homecoming. The sense of community life feels stronger and the energy around all these events was high. There was a lot of collaboration involved to make these events a success. Sandy reminded the committee of the upcoming Healing Ceremony this week and encouraged all to attend the events.

Andrew Hao reminded the committee that each committee is to have a DEI Advocate (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion). There is an upcoming training on Oct 1 for new members and refresher training for those who have taken it in the past. Viktor agreed to do the refresher training for this committee.

Andrew has contacted some of the Student Affairs offices to invite them to present at the upcoming meetings. He is waiting to hear back from them to get them scheduled.
