VIII. New Business

For Information:

- 1) Sustainability and Leadership Minor Kickoff Event "How to have fun adapting to the apocalypse!" Monday, April 1st @ 5pm

This event is for the new minor which will start next fall. The event is supposed to be fun and allow people to learn about fun sustainability leadership things. There will be improv, dancing, and people speaking about their experiences. It's in 109 which is fine because MCSA will be meeting in Science 1020 that night for tech fee allocations.

- 2) Tech Fee increased by 11% for students, from $62.50 to $69.50

Dice- Will the Tech Fee money remain fixed with this new increase?

Brown- Yes it should be fixed and will allow MCSA to have more money overall.

- 3) President Kaler's State of the University Address, Thursday, March 14th, 3:30-4:30pm in HFA 45
- 4) Strategic Visioning Feedback meeting
 - a) Provide feedback in person during an open forum on Wednesday, March 13 from 4-5:30pm in the Student Center, Cougar Room.

For Action:

1. ACTION ALERT: Tell the Governor your experiences at the U of M presented by President Brichacek

Please tell the Governor your positive experiences with UMN by calling (651)201-3400 or by tweeting at Governor Walz or Lieutenant Governor Flanagan. Make sure you do this and tell your friends to do it too.

2. Sign up for Elections and Prairie Gala Tabling

Use an incognito tab to help people vote at the table. You are not able to tell people to vote for any specific candidate and there is no campaigning within 100 feet of table. While tabling also tell people about the Prairie Gala.

3. Vote on First Year Council Health and Wellness Campaign Costs: $140 for coffee sleeves

The cost of the sleeves is $140 and they are compostable. There will be 1,000 sleeves ordered and given out at Higbys.

4. Prairie Gala Volunteer Signup presented by Secretary Gillette

The Gala needs people to set up, serve, do backroom prep, and tear down. We will be reaching out to other orgs to get help with volunteering. The actual event will go from 5-8 pm but we want to make sure people who volunteer also can enjoy the event so do not sign up to work the entire time.
