III. Old Business:

- A. First Year Council Elections

Brichacek- No one tabled for it today. Does anyone want to do anything to promote it?

Bauer- We could spam the freshman Facebook group to get them to vote.

Brichacek- We need a certain number of votes in order for the election to count. The election closes Friday morning.

- B. Vision and Goals Feedback
- C. No Forum on Monday

IV. New Business:

- A. Friendship Program - International Carnival by ISP and ISA

- 1. Monday, November 12th, 2018

Brichacek- MCSA got an email from ISP and ISA which asked if we wanted to partner with them for the International Carnival?

Bauer- I feel like this would be a good, helpful, and supportive way to get non-international students to go to their events.

Brichacek- Each club will get their own table to promote their Orgs and to fundraise.

Bauer- We should email them back and ask for more information about what they want MCSA to do.

Brown- We could do an event to teach people about Ranked Choice Voting; for example, MPIRG did a Vote for Cookies event last year. We could have a bunch of little cookies and have one big bag of each kind. The winning cookie's big bag of cookies will then be raffled off to someone whose name is drawn.

Brichacek- We should actually pursue this idea and get together some day to bake the cookies. We can do it at Johnson's or Bias's house.
