Revised Set of Sociology PSLOs

- (1) Students will be able to comprehend topics of diversity and multiculturalism through the study of societies across various socio-historical contexts.
- (2) Students will be able to gain competency in sociological research methods and sociological theories with applications to contemporary societies and social problems.
- (3) Students will be able to learn to communicate their ideas effectively in writing and through oral presentation.
- (4) Students will be able to comprehend ethical principles germane to conducting sociological research, analyzing data, and presenting and disseminating results and conclusions.
- (5) Students will be able to design and manage their own independent research project, utilizing a combination of skills such as applying sociological theories, collecting and analyzing data, and critically reviewing existing research.
