Community Coffee to be Held in Honor of President Kaler

Summary: The campus and community are invited to an informal gathering with University of Minnesota President Eric Kaler.

(March 19, 2013)-A Community Coffee will be held in honor of University of Minnesota President Eric Kaler on Saturday, April 6, at 9 a.m. in Welcome Center 122. The public is invited to this casual “meet-and-greet” event hosted by Chancellor Jacqueline Johnson. President Kaler and his wife, Karen, will be visiting Morris to attend the 2013 Jazz Fest on Friday, April 5.

“We are so pleased to host President Kaler on campus and to invite the community,” says Chancellor Johnson. “Everyone is invited to join us for friendly conversation and an update on the University of Minnesota system.”

President Kaler will have an opportunity to meet with media representatives from the region immediately following the Community Coffee event.

Free parking is available in the North Lot. For more information, please contact Carrie Grussing, Office of the Chancellor, at 320-589-6020 or grussing@morris.umn.edu.
