November Soup & Substance to Address Impact of International Students

Summary: The event pairs a free meal with meaningful discussion on Thursday, November 15, at 5:30 p.m. in the Student Center's Moccasin Flower Room.

(November 14, 2012)-The University of Minnesota, Morris will host its monthly Soup & Substance discussion on Thursday, November 15, from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m. in the Student Center's Moccasin Flower Room. The event coincides with International Education Week, November 12-16, 2012. Everyone is welcome to join the discussion and enjoy a free meal.

The event provides an open forum for members of the campus and community to discuss issues of local, national, and international importance, particularly issues related to privilege and oppression. Soup & Substance pairs a delicious free meal with a meaningful discussion. The November 15 gathering will address the impact of international students on campus and in the community. This Soup & Substance event is hosted by the International Student Association, International Student Programs, and the Office of Community Engagement.

Soup & Substance is hosting a second event on Tuesday, November 27, from 5:30 until 7 p.m. in Imholte Hall 112, in recognition of Native American Heritage Month. The discussion is open to all who wish to share their opinions and experiences.
