Constitution Day Panel Discussion

Summary: Join the national observance of Constitution Day right here on the Morris campus.

(September 14, 2011)-The campus and community are invited to observe Constitution Day at the Morris campus on Monday, September 19, 2011, at 8 p.m. in the Briggs Library McGinnis Room.

Briggs Library and Pi Sigma Alpha have invited faculty members Mary Elizabeth Bezanson, professor of communication, media, and rhetoric, Roland Guyotte, professor of history, and Paula O'Loughlin, professor of political science to participate in a panel discussion on "The Constitution: Then and Now. Refreshments will be served.

Constitution Day was initiated by Congress to call attention to the United States Constitution. It commemorates the formation and signing of the Constitution on September 17, 1787.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
