A 2011 sponsor, Morris participates in the Living Green Expo

Summary: The family friendly event seeks to inspire people to lead healthier and more sustainable lives...and save money.

(April 19, 2011)-A 2011 sponsor, the University of Minnesota, Morris will participate in the annual Living Green Expo, a family friendly event that seeks to inspire people to lead healthier and more sustainable lives—and save money. The two-day event, Saturday, May 7, from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m., and Sunday, May 8, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., will be held at the Minnesota State Fairgrounds in St. Paul.

In addition to the Morris booth, the expo includes more than 300 exhibits, demonstrations, and seminars ranging from edible gardens to home energy, from composting to wind energy, from biking trails to eco-driving tips. Music and entertainment will be provided throughout the weekend.

The event is free and open to the public, but organizers would appreciate a $2 per person donation.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
