Cougar women's basketball plays first UMAC Tournament game tonight

Summary: The UMAC season champs are undefeated in the conference.

(February 23, 2011)-The Cougar women's basketball team won its second straight Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) championship on February 12 with a 53-52 win over host Northwestern, holding off a big second half Eagle rally in the process.

On February 19, the team put the cap on a perfect conference season, as a 69-41 win over host Northland polished off a conference championship season and a perfect 14-0 record in the UMAC.

Tonight, the second season tips-off as the team opens play in the 2011 UMAC Tournament.

The women play first at 5:30 p.m. against Martin Luther, with the men set to follow after at 7:30 p.m. against Bethany Lutheran.
