University of Minnesota Legislative Briefing to be videocast live to the Morris campus

Summary: President Bruininks will present the University's legislative request.

(December 22, 2010)-The 2011 University of Minnesota Legislative Briefing will be held at the Twin Cities McNamara Alumni Center on Wednesday, January 19, 2011, and videocast live on the Morris campus in Imholte 109 from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m. Online registration for the event closes January 11, 2011.

The Legislative Briefing will include a presentation by President Robert Bruininks on the University's 2011 legislative request. Guest speaker Peggy Flanagan, a 2002 graduate of the Twin Cities campus, will share her personal story of how the University changed her life.

Attending the University's Legislative Briefing prepares advocates to share their stories with state leaders in support of the Morris campus and the entire University.
