December Soup & Substance discussion on budget cuts and education

Summary: The monthly event pairs a free meal with meaningful discussion.

(December 1, 2010)-The University of Minnesota, Morris will host its monthly Soup & Substance discussion on Tuesday, December 7, 2010, at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Center's Alumni Room in Oyate Hall. The event provides an open forum for members of the campus and community to discuss issues of local, national, and international importance, particularly issues related to privilege and oppression. Soup & Substance pairs a delicious free meal with a meaningful discussion. The December gathering will address the issue of budget cuts and their relation to education.

Hosted this month by the Management Discipline's Leadership II class as a service learning project and the Office of Community Engagement, Soup & Substance is open to all who wish to share their opinions and experiences. Everyone is welcome to join the discussion and enjoy a free meal.

For more information from the Office of Community Engagement, contact Argie Manolis, coordinator, at 320-589-6276.
