Art Club Holiday Sale showcases work by student, faculty, and area artists

Summary: The Art Club Holiday Sale is a favorite destination for unique, one-of-a-kind gifts.

(December 3, 2010)-The Art Club will host its annual Holiday Sale on Thursday through Saturday, December 2–4, 2010, in the Humanities Fine Arts Gallery. A campus tradition, the Holiday Sale features work by students, faculty, and local artists. The sale features a wide variety of items for purchase from paintings to prints, photographs to ceramic pieces, knit items to handmade jewelry.

The Art Club is a student organization for people who are interested in art, both majors and nonmajors. The organization provides opportunities for the campus and the community to get involved with art. The student group hosts special guests and speakers, organizes trips to art museums and galleries in New York City, Chicago, and Minneapolis, and coordinates the children's Art-o-rama event and the Art Club Holiday Sale.
