November Soup & Substance to discuss large corporations and small communities

Summary: The open forum pairs meaningful discussion with a delicious free meal.

(November 12, 2010)-The University of Minnesota, Morris will host its monthly Soup & Substance discussion on Tuesday, November 16, 2010, at 6 p.m. in the Student Center's Moccasin Flower Room. The event provides an open forum for members of the campus and community to discuss issues of local, national, and international importance, particularly issues related to privilege and oppression. Soup & Substance pairs a delicious free meal with a meaningful discussion. The November gathering will address the issues of large corporations and how they affect small communities.

Hosted this month by the Leadership II class as a service learning project and the Office of Community Engagement, Soup & Substance is open to all who wish to share their opinions and experiences. Everyone is welcome to join the discussion and enjoy a free meal.

For more information, contact the Office of Community Engagement, Argie Manolis, coordinator, at 320-589-6276.
