Alumni Associations develop campus history audio walking tours

Summary: The free tour and equipment can be checked out, at no cost.

(November 11, 2010)-History buffs, area citizens, alumni, the campus community, and visitors will enjoy the new audio walking tour now available at the University of Minnesota, Morris. Narrators guide users on a gentle walk through campus with stops in various places and spaces to tell stories about campus personalities, historic buildings, and the three institutions that have occupied the campus: an American Indian boarding school, 1887–1909, the University of Minnesota West Central School of Agriculture (WCSA), 1910–1963, and the University of Minnesota, Morris (UMM), 1960–present.

UMM Alumni Association and the WCSA Alumni Association sponsored the audio walking tour project in celebration of the 50th birthday of UMM and the 100th anniversary of the WCSA's founding. The tour and equipment can be checked out, at no cost, at the Welcome Center or Student Center, or downloaded to your mobile device.
