2010 Cougar Fest set for September 11

Summary: The event features free game admission, activities, entertainment, and drawings.

(September 10, 2010)-The campus and the community are invited to join the fun during the seventh annual University of Minnesota, Morris Cougar Fest on Saturday, September 11, 2010. The free event features activities for all ages and an exciting afternoon of Cougar football.

Cougar Fest begins just outside of Big Cat Stadium at 11 a.m. with free pre-kickoff activities for the whole family, including inflatable games. Pounce, the Cougars' mascot, will be present for photos and to prepare the crowd for cheering the Cougars on to victory.

All fans receive free game admission. The Morris Cougars take on the Westminster College Griffins at noon in Big Cat Stadium. The day's festivities also include halftime entertainment and a halftime drawing for prizes.

Concessions will be available beginning at 11 a.m. and during the game.

Stop by the bookstore between 11 a.m.-4 p.m. and check out their new fall apparel, gifts, and other great items.

Don't miss the fun. Go Cougars!
