University of Minnesota, Morris to participate in the Living Green Expo

Summary: The event features a Gubernatorial Candidate Forum on clean energy, clean water, and Minnesota's future.

(April 16, 2010)-The University of Minnesota, Morris will participate in the 2010 Living Green Expo, a free, family-friendly event that inspires people to lead healthier and more sustainable lives. The two-day event, Saturday, May 1, from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. and Sunday, May 2, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., will be held at the Minnesota State Fairgrounds in St. Paul.

On Sunday at 1 p.m., the Living Green Expo will sponsor a Gubernatorial Candidate Forum on clean energy, clean water, and Minnesota's future.

The expo will include more than 250 exhibits, demonstrations, and seminars ranging from sustainable education to eco-art, from outdoor living to green buildings and transportation. Kids activities and great local foods will be highlights.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
