Art Club Holiday Sale features work of student and area artists

Summary: A campus tradition, the sale features paintings, prints, photographs, ceramic pieces, handmade jewelry, and knit items.

(November 20, 2009)-The University of Minnesota, Morris Art Club will host its annual Holiday Sale on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, December 3–5, 2009, in the Humanities Fine Arts Gallery. The Holiday Sale, a campus tradition, features work created by students and area artists, and offers a wide variety of items for purchase including paintings, prints, photographs, ceramic pieces, handmade jewelry, and knit items.

The Art Club is a student organization for people who are interested in art, both majors and nonmajors. The organization provides opportunities for the campus and the community to get involved with art. The student group organizes trips to art museums and galleries in New York City, Chicago, and Minneapolis, and coordinates the children's Art-o-rama event and the annual Art Club Holiday Sale.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
