Laughter to fill Edson Auditorium when comedian Robert Post takes the stage

Summary: National Public Radio touts the Post Comedy Theatre show as “uproariously funny.”

(November 5, 2009)-The hilarious Post Comedy Theatre is the third event in the University of Minnesota, Morris 2009 Performing Arts Series. Comedian Robert Post will bring humor, juggling, and ventriloquism to the Student Center’s Edson Auditorium stage on Saturday, November 21, 2009, at 7:30 p.m. National Public Radio touts the show as “uproariously funny” and states Post’s antics will “give you a boost of happiness.”

In addition to performing, Post’s weekend agenda also includes hosting a workshop for Morris Area High School students and University students in which they will learn the art of physical acting.

UMM student Sam Krump-Johnson ’10, Maple Grove, co-chair of the student organization Unusual Suspects Improv Troupe, is looking forward to the performance and the workshop. He says, “[Post] takes funny to a whole new level. His use of pantomime and diverse characters make for a truly sidesplitting experience!”
