Halloween stories: share if you dare

Summary: Be prepared to bring your best scare to the Sigma Tau Delta annual Halloween stories and costumes event.

(October 14, 2009)-On Tuesday, October 27, 2009, Sigma Tau Delta, a student International English Honor Society at the University of Minnesota, Morris, is holding its annual Halloween stories and costumes event in Turtle Mountain Cafe (TMC) in the Student Center. Be prepared to bring your best scare.

Students, staff, faculty, and all community members are welcomed to share Halloween stories that might interfere with sleep. Ghouls and goblins are expected to arrive around 7:30 p.m., and the stories begin at 8 p.m. sharp.

Costumes are encouraged for the festivities. There will be judging for the scariest or most clever costume worn, as well as the most frightening stories.

Contact Kate Novotny '10, Woodbury, Sigma Tau Delta member, at 651-334-2417 or nov00014@morris.umn.edu if you have questions or wish to sign up for a specific time slot to share your scary story. The event will also offer an open microphone opportunity for any spontaneous fright that may come to mind. Refreshments will be available.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity.
