Grand Derangement "kicks off" Performing Arts Series

Summary: The Nova Scotia musical and step group will play and dance to an Acadian blend of folk, Celtic, rock, Broadway and French chansoniers music on Saturday, September 19, 2009, at 7:30 p.m. in Edson Auditorium.

(September 11, 2009)-Every year, the University of Minnesota, Morris sponsors a spectacular Performing Arts Series, inviting an outstanding array of performers who throughout the year entertain and inspire students, faculty, staff, and community members alike. This year's line-up will not disappointment. The series kicks off with Grand Derangement, a Nova Scotia musical and step group playing an Acadian blend of folk, Celtic, rock, Broadway and French chansoniers music. They perform on Saturday, September 19, 2009, at 7:30 p.m. in Edson Auditorium in the Student Center.

In addition to a spectacular and full-bodied stage show, Sydney Sweep '10, Bismarck, North Dakota, Performing Arts Committee co-chair, shares that Grand Derangement will also offer a free step dance class, open to all, at 1 p.m. in Recital Hall in the Humanities Fine Arts building.

Sandy Grove, Morris, season ticket holder for many years, believes the Performing Arts Series is a great way to recognize different kinds of artistic expression. She says, "It is an opportunity for our community to be exposed to a variety of talent, and it's important for our children to see. And [the Performing Arts Series] is right at our fingertips!"
