Cougar women's soccer heads to post-season tournament

Summary: With a pair of Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) wins over Presentation College to close out the regular season, coupled with a pair of losses by Crown College, the University of Minnesota, Morris women's soccer team is heading to the UMAC post-season tournament for the fourth consecutive season.

(November 3, 2008)-With a pair of Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) wins over Presentation College to close out the regular season, coupled with a pair of losses by Crown College, the University of Minnesota, Morris women's soccer team is heading to the UMAC post-season tournament for the fourth consecutive season.

UMM defeated the Saints, 5-0, last Thursday at home and then came up with a 1-0 win at Presentation Saturday in Aberdeen, S.D.

The Cougars will be the number four seed in this year's tournament and will travel to Duluth to take on top-seeded St. Scholastica at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 4, in Duluth. St. Scholastica won their fifth straight regular season title.

The other semi-final game has number two seed Northwestern College hosting number three seed Northland College in St. Paul at 2 p.m. Tuesday.
