Showcase Day during Henjum Creative Study Institute

Summary: Thirty students ages 12 to 17 from 18 area schools are on campus to participate in the 35th Annual Henjum Creative Study Institute through June 27.

(March 3, 2008)-Thirty students ages 12 to 17 from 18 area schools are on campus to participate in the 35th Annual Henjum Creative Study Institute through June 27.

Since its first two-week program in 1974, the Institute has provided a unique variety of arts enrichment opportunities for junior and senior high school gifted and talented students during the summer.

Mark your calendars for Friday, June 27, for a Showcase Day program from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the HFA building, when participants in the Institute will share their projects with family and friends. The Creative Study Institute Showcase Day event is free and open to all campus and community members.
