(January 3, 2008)-The University of Minnesota, Morris will partner with District 206 Community Education in Alexandria to offer lifelong learning courses in the Alexandria area in April 2008. Indulge your passion for learning with non-credit liberal arts topics taught by current and retired UMM faculty and other regional experts.

Laird Barber, UMM professor emeritus of English, will lead the topic, "Church Architecture and History: A Study and Tour of God's Houses," to be offered April 14 and 21 from 3 to 5 p.m. and April 28 from 12:30 to 6 p.m. This three-part course will explore, first, church history with discussion of local, state and national churches and overseas roots in England and Europe and the Church Catholic. The second session will focus on church architecture with a discussion and slideshow of churches, cathedrals, basilicas and the Gothic style in America and Europe. The third session will be a field trip to visit some beautiful and historic churches in Sauk Centre, Albany and Meire Grove. A stop at the Palmer House for coffee (on your own) is set for April 28. Bring a friend and enjoy learning for fun with this engaging topic.
