Symphonic Winds to perform "Lord of the Rings" Concert

Summary: The University of Minnesota, Morris Symphonic Winds invites the community to a concert on March 4 at 3 p.m. in the Humanities Fine Arts Recital Hall on the UMM campus. A free reception will immediately follow the concert.

(February 23, 2007)-The University of Minnesota, Morris Symphonic Winds invites the community to a concert on Sunday, March 4, at 3 p.m. in the Humanities Fine Arts Recital Hall on the UMM campus. A free reception will immediately follow the concert.

Under conductor Dr. Martin H. Seggelke, the UMM Symphonic Winds will perform Johan de Meij's "Symphony 1: The Lord of the Rings." This epic five-movement composition includes musical depictions of "Gandalf," "Lothlórien," "Gollum," "Journey in the Dark – the Mines of Moria and the Bridge of Khazad-Dûm," and "Hobbits." The performance will also include a multi-media display during the performance for your viewing pleasure. Don't miss this exciting afternoon of fantastic entertainment!

Ticket prices are $5 general admission, $3 reduced admission, and $1 for UMM students with school ID. Parking is free. For further information, contact Judy Van Eps at (320) 589-6234, or Dr. Martin Seggelke at (320) 589-6236.
