Men's soccer members earn UMAC post-season honors

Summary: In its first year of existence, the UMM men's soccer team had four members who earned Upper Midwest Athletic Conference all-conference honors with two first-team selections and two honorable-mention awards.

(December 4, 2006)-In its first year of existence, the University of Minnesota, Morris men's soccer team had four members who earned Upper Midwest Athletic Conference all-conference honors with two first-team selections and two honorable-mention awards.

Earning first-team all-conference accolades were brothers Patrick O'Connor and Justin O'Conner, Ham Lake. Juan Dominguez and Kellen Walker, both of Alamosa, Colo, were named honorable mention. All four are freshmen.

Walker and Patrick O'Connor led the team with 15 points each. Walker had seven goals and one assist, O'Connor had five goals and five assists.

Dominguez and Justin O'Connor were both key defenders for the Cougars.

The UMM men's soccer team finished 3-11-4 overall and 3-7-4 in the UMAC. Of the 11 losses, seven were by one goal.
