(October 3, 2006)-The University of Minnesota, Morris will open its 2006-2007 theater season with "Crimes of the Heart" by Beth Henley. The performance will begin at 7:30 p.m. November 1-4 with a Saturday matinee at 2 p.m. November 4. All performances will be in the Humanities Fine Arts Proscenium Theatre.

Start your own season of "Love, Literature, and Laughter" with this southern tragi-comedy about three estranged sisters who reunite at the family home in Mississippi. An audience favorite, "Crimes of the Heart" last graced the stage of UMM's summer theatre in 1989. UMM Assistant Professor of Theatre Siobhan Bremer will direct this exciting revival.

The theater season at UMM continues with:

Meinings Student Theatre, "The Weir," December 6-9 "The Servant of Two Masters" February 14-17 the 38th annual children's production, "The Wind in the Willows." Public performances are April 20-21 with invited school matinees April 19-25.

Ticket prices for the fall production, "Crimes of the Heart," are $7 general admission and $5 for students and senior citizens. Special group discounts are available for groups of six or more. For more information and advanced ticket sales, contact the Theatre Publicity and Box Office at (320) 589-6249, or e-mail thrupub@morris.umn.edu.
