(September 11, 2006)-The University of Minnesota Law School will present a program commemorating the U.S. Constitution on September 19, 2006, from 12:15 to 2:15 p.m. All students are encouraged to participate either by ITV in HFA Studio B or via the Web.

“The University of Minnesota’s Constitution Day program assembles one of America’s finest teams of talent on constitutional law. The members of our community, across the university’s campuses in the Twin Cities, Crookston, Duluth, Morris and Rochester, can find no better source of wisdom on current constitutional issues than the team that will be gathered here Sept. 19,” said Jim Chen, associate dean at the Law School.
