UMM Orchestra sets events November 19-21

Summary:

(November 2, 2004)-The Cavani String Quartet will present a series of events in Morris November 19-21, beginning with a performance at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 19, in Humanities Fine Arts Recital Hall at the University of Minnesota, Morris. The Quartet will provide a workshop for students from five west central Minnesota high schools on November 20. On Sunday, Nov. 21, the UMM Chamber String Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Clifford Panton, UMM music faculty, and participating students will perform at 3 p.m., again in HFA Recital Hall.

The Cavani String Quartet, winner of the prestigious Naumburg Chamber Music Award, has been described by the Washington Post as "completely engrossing, powerful, and elegant." Superb musicians known for their joy and understanding of chamber music, the quartet performs a broad range of repertoire and are actively engaged in commissioning and premiering new works.

The public is invited to each event. There is no admission charge.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity.
