UMM will sponsor first of season Chamber Eye-Opener

Summary:

(September 23, 2004)-Learn about enrollment and recruitment at the University of Minnesota, Morris, as well as the new Promise of Tomorrow Scholarship program to benefit UMM students, during the first Chamber Eye-Opener of the season, Tuesday, Oct. 12, to be held at LaFave House, 305 College Avenue. This Eye-Opener is sponsored by UMM.

James Morales, UMM associate vice chancellor for enrollment, and Maddy Maxeiner, UMM associate vice chancellor for external relations and director of fund development, will briefly discuss these topics and answer questions. Chancellor Sam Schuman will provide opening remarks.

Attendees are also invited to tour LaFave House at 9 a.m. following the Eye-Opener.

Chamber Eye-Openers provide an opportunity for you to network informally with other Chamber members and prospective members, and learn what's happening with your colleagues at other businesses in town, as well as to learn more about what the Chamber can do for you. Plus, you can grab a quick bite before heading off to work, and come and go between 7:30 a.m. and 9 a.m. as your schedule permits.

Last year was the inaugural year for Chamber Eye-Openers, which are hosted at the site of a different Morris business from 7:30 to 9 a.m. on the second Tuesday of each month. Watch for a schedule of future Chamber Eye-Openers in the Chamber newsletter, or in the Chamber column in the Morris Sun Tribune.

If you would like to sponsor an Eye-Opener at your place of business, or for more information, please contact the Chamber office, at 589-1242.

Plan to join us at LaFave House on October 12.
