Trick or Can collection October 30

Summary:

(October 16, 2003)-Students from the University of Minnesota, Morris and others who want to be involved will go door to door in the city of Morris during the 10th annual Trick or Can event from 6 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 30.

Volunteers will be separated into groups to cover the city of Morris and collect non-perishable food items for the Stevens County food shelf. The volunteers will then drop the food off at designated places to be taken to the food shelf.

UMM residence halls will sponsor the event, with assistance from Carol McCannon, coordinator in the UMM Office of Community Service and Volunteerism. Anyone wishing to become involved can call Karen Morlock, resident director of Gay Hall, at 589-6947, or Whitney Anderson, Pine Hall resident director, at 589-6586.

Said Morlock: "It's a good idea to get students out into the community, and it also benefits the community."

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
