West Central School of Agriculture sets reunion July 19-20

Summary:

(July 1, 2003)-West Central School of Agriculture (WCSA) alumni will celebrate the school's 93rd anniversary during their annual reunion July 19-20 at the University of Minnesota, Morris. Anyone who attended, worked, or taught at the School of Agriculture from 1910-1963 is invited to attend.

Susan Granger '80 will be the featured speaker at the All-School Reunion banquet on July 19. Granger is co-owner, along with Scott Kelly '77, of Gemini Research, the historical research firm that facilitated WCSA and Experiment Station's successful nomination to the National Registry of Historic Places. Granger will share information about the nomination process as well as stories she has discovered about campus history.

Registration begins at 10 a.m. Saturday in the UMM Student Center. The reunion will also include campus walking tours, a buffet brunch, the annual Alumni Association Business Meeting and an evening banquet.

For additional information and a complete schedule of events, contact Pat Gannon, director of alumni relations, at (320) 589-6067.
