Friends of Cougar Golf tourney

Summary: Friends of Cougar Football will gather during the Eighth Annual University of Minnesota, Morris Friends of Cougar Football Golf Tournament July 7 at the Geneva Golf Club in Alexandria. Twenty-eight teams hit the links during last year's event.

(June 27, 2006)-Friends of Cougar Football will gather during the Eighth Annual University of Minnesota, Morris Friends of Cougar Football Golf Tournament July 7 at the Geneva Golf Club in Alexandria. Shotgun start is at 11 a.m.

Twenty-eight teams hit the links during last year's event.

"This tournament is a great way to meet old friends and make news ones," said Cougar Head Football Coach Ken Crandall. "Regardless of your skill level, the scramble format will ensure a good time.

"We have added the opportunity for hole sponsorships this year," added Crandall.

Registration forms are available by calling (320) 589-6425 or Coach Crandall at crandaka@morris.umn.edu. For more information about the tournament or to sponsor a hole contact Coach Crandall.
