(June 20, 2006)-The West Central School of Agriculture classes of 1946, 1951, 1956 and 1961 are among those who will gather during the annual West Central School of Agriculture All-School Reunion set for Saturday, July 15, at the University of Minnesota, Morris.

"Preparations are underway for what promises to be another terrific WCSA summer reunion," said Carla Riley '85, director of alumni relations and annual giving at UMM. "We are receiving registrations daily and are expecting a large turn out of WCSA alums. This year, in addition to the usual reunion activities, attendees will have the opportunity to view a wonderful six-panel permanent display, which illustrates, through photographs and text, the history of the campus. This historic display is interesting to all who view it but will hold a special significance for 'Aggies.' "
