Logo created for Library Associates

Summary: Brian Bourne, a senior biology major at UMM from Montevideo, submitted the winning entry during a contest to create a logo to represent the Rodney A. Briggs Library Associates.

(May 24, 2006)-Brian Bourne, a senior biology major at the University of Minnesota, Morris from Montevideo, submitted the winning entry during a contest to create a logo to represent the Rodney A. Briggs Library Associates.

The purposes of the Briggs Library Associates are both charitable and educational. They are committed to the role that Briggs Library plays in the success of the University of Minnesota, Morris and the life of west central Minnesota. The Associates provide programming and exhibits to enrich the cultural, intellectual and artistic life of west central Minnesota area communities and also raise funds for projects, furnishings and materials not possible with the existing library budget.

Those interested in becoming a member of the Associates can contact LeAnn Dean, director of the Rodney A. Briggs Library, at 320-589-6226.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
