Ice Cream and Lollipops

Summary: The annual Ice Cream and Lollipops Children's Art Exhibit gives local children the opportunity to witness their incredible artwork on display while enjoying an atmosphere of storytelling, music, ice cream, lollipops and other great fun.

(May 8, 2006)-The 2006 Ice Cream and Lollipops Children's Art Exhibit is just around the corner. The exhibit, sponsored by Community Service and Volunteerism at the University of Minnesota, Morris, gives local children from preschool to second grade the opportunity to witness their incredible artwork on display while enjoying an atmosphere of storytelling, music, ice cream, lollipops and other great fun.

This year's exhibition will showcase murals created by the children that are based on a children's book of their choice. The murals will be on display from Thursday through Saturday, May 18-20, in the Humanities Fine Arts Gallery at UMM.

The show is open for free public viewing from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday-Saturday. Ice cream and lollipops will be served only on Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m.- 4 p.m. and Saturday at 1 p.m. Volunteers from Nancy Grotjohn's Morris Area High School class and representatives of the UMM Retirees Association will help serve ice cream and tell stories.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
