Celebrate the excellence of our students

Summary: The excellence of UMM students will be celebrated during the 15th Annual Student Honors and Awards Ceremony to begin at 6:45 p.m. Friday, May 12.

(May 1, 2006)-The excellence of students at the University of Minnesota, Morris will be celebrated during the 15th Annual Student Honors and Awards Ceremony to begin at 6:45 p.m. Friday, May 12, in Edson Auditorium of the UMM Student Center. The day's events will include a Native American Honoring Ceremony in Oyate Hall at 4 p.m., followed by dinner at 5:30 p.m., an Honors and Awards Parents' Reception at 6 p.m. in the UMM Student Center, and the Honors Recital at 8 p.m. in HFA Recital Hall, following the Honors and Awards event. The public is invited to attend these events.

Judith Kuechle, interim vice chancellor for academic affairs and dean, will provide the welcome to open the evening ceremony. Associate Professor of English Janet Schrunk Ericksen, who is the recipient of the 2006 UMM Alumni Association Teaching Award, will give the ceremony address, titled "Raising the Dead."

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
